➤ Technology Special

Our first few technology seminars are done, but the topics continue to change. We have included a few of the biggest geek treats here!

Network Magic Pro Software

- Network Magic Pro 5.1 This $40 software makes setting up your home or small office peer-to-peer system so easy even a Congressman couldn't mess it up!

A 15 day free trial gets you up and running and the $40 license fee licenses up to 8 computers.

After installation the software instantly recognizes, connects and shares computers, printers, files, Internet connections and more and includes several security controls.

Features include the ability to work interchangeably with Macs/Apple/Linux and Windows computers, wireless and wired systems, sharing printers and other peripherals, and much more.

- Wireless USB is up and running. We are demonstrating our IOGear wireless USB video adapter in our live seminars-sending our computers video output wirelessly to video projectors, TV's, monitors and wall mounted LCD TV's-without running wires. A

Cloud Computing

No this is not working with your head in the clouds. This is a server system maintained by secure Internet experts to host all of your needs for hardware and software, backup and maintenance, installation and security, all on their system. Ours is now up and running. We are using www.myrealdata.com as we speak.

Just think-secure access from anywhere at any time for everyone in the office. No more software installation or maintenance issues, no hardware breakdowns, no new equipment, no backup worries-and all of your software will run on their system.

NetBooks

Quick-what is a very cheap, light, small powerful computer that includes built in wireless, Windows XP, USB ports, built-in cameras, and the ability to do anything you can do at your expensive workstation called? A NetBook!

In our live seminars we are demonstrating the Asus Eee PC, the Net Book that started the trend. The model we are using cost \$299 at Tiger Direct. You can pick and choose between hard drive-based units or those that offer limited-capacity, Solid State Disk flash modules.

Here are the features we would look for:

Windows XP-Linux won't do, and the XP models will soon dry up as manufacturers are forced by Microsoft to increase processor power (and price) with their new Microsoft 7 operating system.

1 GB of RAM, an Atom 1.6 processor, 2 USB ports, external VGA, external speakers, 120 GB or larger hard drive, built in wireless, built in camera and battery life of over 2 hours.

Society Sponsor Focus:

The Alaska Society of Independent Accountants

ASIA has a long relationship with Jennings Seminars, and our January, 2009 seminars were the best attended seminars in many years, with well over 200 people in total attendance in Fairbanks and Anchorage.

This seminar season how about a trip to see the Northern lights in Fairbanks at the beautiful Princess Lodge on January 8 & 9 for our 1040 in-depth class. Or consider the full 3 day live seminar series in Anchorage on January 7-9 for the 1 day business update and the 2 day 1040 in depth? Watch out for the moose in the city streets though, and come eat dinner with us on Friday night at the best restaurant on our seminar circuit-Club Paris in Anchorage. Contact ASIA for these and other seminars via their webpage at www.asiacct.org
